Song: Human Race
 Artist: Tom Cochrane
 Album: Songs of a Circling Spirit

This version tabbed by Andre Bruneau <ni totem2@yahoo.com>
 Standard tuning (EADGBE)

-----
 I'm not a very strong guitar player, especially when it comes to lead guitar. Even the little fills here and there give me trouble.
 But, this is the way I play this acoustic version of the song.
 You know the rules though - this is a guide only.
 You'll have to listen to the real deal to fill in the gaps yourself.
 (or wait until I improve enough to add the fills later!)

Intro:
 A G B (fill 1) B
 A G B (fill 1) B

Verse 1:
 G
 I can see it on the road ahead
 running hard I'm here, but I could be there instead B
 G
 Many houses with the lights on
 Silhouettes behind the shades beside fires -
 B
 I'm sure I saw you in one
 G
 I loved you but that was way back then
 B
 Now I'm alone outside - I face the wind, the rain washes me thin

Chorus
 A
 Knocked me down but I got back up
 G B (fill 1)
 I got myself back in the race again
 A
 Knock me down and I'll get back up
 G B and I'll get myself back in the race again

Verse 2:

Race through the shadows - race against stone
the sunken city I thought was my own
Might be a brave new world
but it's really not my home
Roll over fall in "My God" I screamed
They might catch them but they won't catch me
I'm out here clean and I'm free
- yes I'm free

[Repeat Chorus]

Guitar solo:

G B
G B

[Repeat Chorus]

Outro:

A G B
